Criminal Defense Lawyers can always find a CLE seminar about experts, DNA, cross examination, and jury selection. For the private practitioner, none of these matter without a client to represent. The Practice is a one-day intensive discussion about practice management and rainmaking. From the initial client meeting, to the retainer agreement, to tips and strategies for “keeping the doors open” during a stormy economy, and organizing your office, The Practice brings together national experts and leaders in the criminal defense bar on topics important to anyone in or contemplating private practice. So join us in beautiful Miami Beach, for a day dedicated to The Practice.
